

The Prophet Isa (Jesus) ^{عليه السلام} was born in a town called Bayt Lahm (Bethlehem), five miles south west of Jerusalem. He grew up in Nasiriya (Nazareth).

One day his disciples asked him whether his Lord could send down a table spread with food from the heavens.

'Go in fear of Allah,' warned Isa عليه السلام, 'if you are true believers.'

The Prophet Isa عليه السلام continued his mission for several years, but only a few answered his call. The Children of Israel, wanted to kill him by crucifying him on a cross.

There are sayings of the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ which tell of the return of the Prophet Isa عليه السلام to the earth before the Day of Judgement.
