

The Prophet Sulayman عليه السلام was the son of the Prophet Dawud عليه السلام. He was a mighty king and ruled Jerusalem. He was given wonderful powers by Allah. As a child, Sulayman عليه السلام showed wisdom and intelligence. At a very young age he surprised his father with his ideas about the rule of law.

It was when two angry men came to see Dawud عليه السلام. One of them said, "I had a beautiful field full of crops. This man's sheep entered it and destroyed all my plants."

“After a while when the crops are fully grown, the sheep will be returned to their owner.” In this way Sulayman عليه السلام showed the difference between what was owned and what could be earned from it.

He was able to understand the language of the birds.

